elease : CIA-RDP75-00149R000100010019-3
DATE

BEST COPY

AVAILABLE

FOIAb3b

s Hubby Misses Concert

Vikita's: Daughter Rada Solos

CPYRGHT

By Marie Smith and Maxine Cheshire

Adzhubel stayed at the Embassy to catch up on the day's work but he sent his wife last night to occupy President Kennedy's box at Constitution Hall for the performance of their former countryman, violinist Isaac

Mrs. Adzhubek daughter of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, arrived with the President's musically-inclined Proses Secretary, Plerre Salinger and Mrs.
Salinger Also in fliels party were the Salingers 9-year-old son Stephen, an aspiring violinist, and Mrs. Georgi Bolshakov, wife of editor of U. S. S. R. magazine who has been acting as Adzhubei's interpreter. Salinger is an old friend of Stern who was born in Kreminiecz, Russla Both pianist Salinger, and violatist Stern grew up in San-Francisco. Last night's concert had been a standin date of the Salinger months before the Adzhubeis visit, but the evening was expanded to nclude an impromptu supper party at the Salingers ake Barcroft home.

Mrs. Adzhubei sat expectality, as though her hus-blad would arrive any min-utal throughout the per-formance.

When Stern's rendition of Bartine's "Violin Concerto No. concluded the program without the appearance of Adzhubel and Bol-

their guests went backstag

There, Rada Adzhub chatted in Russian with t violinist, thanking him the performance, and the occupants of Box 13 all left for the Salingers house for an after concert supper MAlexei Ademu bei an Georgi Rolshakov skrived i för the after concert par at Lake Barcroft.

Stern, who had a death in his family enrifer vestereds, could not stable the lat-get-together. Guette with mostly Soviet and American can newspies and a few Government officials.

Included were Take Agent cy representative Mildigit I sagisfyan and life of columniat William S. White, see members of the lavi staff in New Worksand S. Ington, and Eugene S. Expert who is also a see per of the Sallawirs. bor of the Salingers.

PRESIDENT Kennedy gave a small wite luncheon festiria niessant and wild red to the White House derive regarday for the Adzhubel with arc in Washington for three days between list in Mexico. Cuba and Figure to Mexico. Cuba and Figure The Jumbeon for agent whoms, was held in the Figure Pamily a private day in Soom. Besides the Adah bers, the suggests indus-Presidential Press Secretar and Mrs. Salinger and I translator between adzhu-bel, editor of the Russian governmen newspaper Izvestia, and the President the and the President.

The guests gathered in the oval from on the discondition of the White Hittee for nearly an hour of take he fore morning to the dinning room for the lunchion.

Salinger teld apporters later they stellar addition to phosparate full the lunches addition to phosparate full the later they stellar addition to phosparate full the later they stellar addition to phosparate full the later they are later they milk he said,

Edith Henry oith a flowering LANGERP 188919819

tized - Approved For Re